What can I do to help?

There are loads of things that you can do to make a real difference to the campaign to ensure Britain remains a full and active member of the EU.

1. Write to Your MP

It is vital that our MPs are fully aware of the views of those who vote for them. It does not matter what party your MP is from, or what their stance on Brexit is, they need to know your views. They represent YOU! We need to leave our MPs in no doubt about the growing resistance to Brexit. The importance of this task cannot be overstated. Please write regularly, either by email or by a posted letter.

- Find your MP, and their email or postal address here:
www.parliament.uk/mps-lords-and-offices/mps
- Always send emails to their parliamentary email address as these are logged, as is a lack of a response. Copy in the constituency email address if you like.
- VERY IMPORTANT - ensure you include your full address and postcode (best at the start of the email) in every email or letter. MPs will only look at correspondence from their own constituents.
- Decide what Brexit aspect to write about: this could be a personal concern you have, something relevant to recent developments, something that your MP has said, something that affects your local area.

Top Tips ★ Write about one subject only in each email and keep it short. This gives you more ammunition for future emails. ★ Ask a question to encourage a response. ★ Be firm but polite. You are trying to build an ongoing dialogue. ★ Avoid template letters.

- Follow up: if you receive an unsatisfactory response or no response, challenge it. A lack of response does not mean that your message has been unread. Just keep writing.
- To help us keep track of any shift in the positions of our 12 Devon MPs, please let us know what you are asking and what responses you receive, by emailing mpcontact@devonforeurope.org
- Whilst in writing mode, you can also write to Lords and MEPs.
